MEDIA INVITATION

SUBJECT: BRIEFING ON THE ACTIVITIES OF SHELTER AFRIQUE

Namibia, together with 43 other African Governments, the Africa Development Bank and Africa Re-insurance Company are shareholding members of Shelter Afrique. Shelter Afrique (SHAF), also known as the Company for Habitat and Housing in Africa, is a Pan-African finance institution that was established in 1984 to finance and support the development of affordable housing and urban infrastructure in Africa in line with the continent's goal of housing for all. The headquarters of SHAF is in Nairobi, Kenya.

The Managing Director of Shelter Afrique, Mr Andrew Chimphondah, will be on a brief visit to Namibia from 9-10 October 2018. During his visit, Mr. Chimphondah is scheduled to pay a courtesy call on Hon. Dr Peya Mushelenga, Minister of Urban and Rural Development (MURD) as well as hold consultations with CEO of NHE, Mr Gisbertus Mukulu and Mr. Nghidinua Daniel, the Permanent Secretary of MURD who is also the current Chairman of Board of Directors of SHAF.

The media is invited to a media conference with the visiting SHAF MD to be given an insight on the role and activities of SHAF and on how Namibia can benefit from the company. The details of the planned conference are given below.

Date/Time: Tuesday, 09 October 2018, 15H00

Venue: MURD Minister's Boardroom, 2nd floor, Government Office Park

Your attendance will be highly appreciated.

Yours sincerely
